Memorial Day
Never Forget Ever Honor

Memorial Day, originally called Decoration Day, is a day of remembrance for those who have died in our nation's service.

It was first observed on 30 May 1868, when flowers were placed on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers at Arlington National Cemetery.

In 1915, inspired by the poem "In Flanders Fields", came the idea to wear red poppies on Memorial Day in honor of those who died serving the nation during war.

Traditional observance of Memorial Day has diminished over the years. Many Americans nowadays have forgotten the meaning and traditions of Memorial Day. At many cemeteries, the graves of the fallen are increasingly ignored, neglected. Most people no longer remember the proper flag etiquette for the day. While there are towns and cities that still hold Memorial Day parades, many have not held a parade in decades. Some people think the day is for honoring any and all dead, and not just those fallen in service to our country.

To help re-educate and remind Americans of the true meaning of Memorial Day, the "National Moment of Remembrance" resolution was passed in Dec 2000 which asks that at 3 p.m. local time for all Americans "To voluntarily and informally observe in their own way a Moment of remembrance and respect, pausing from whatever they are doing for a moment of silence or listening to 'Taps'", to remember, reflect and honor those who have given their all in service to their country.

(On Memorial Day the flag should be displayed at half-staff until noon only, then raised to the top of the staff.)

Obituary of Lorene Ruth Gann Stephens

Lorene Ruth Gann Stephens was born in Coweta, Ok. August 10, 1912. Lorene died 2 May 2006 in Tulsa, OK. She was the daughter of Edward Isom Gann and Bertha Elma Peele.

She married Ray (Pug) Stephens in 1931 and they made their home in Coweta, OK. In 1936, they moved to Tulsa, Ok. In 1961, they moved to Ft. Gibson Lake in Wagoner, Ok.

Lorene retired from Children's Medical Center in 1972. After Ray passed away, Lorene move to Sapulpa, OK in 1995.

Lorene was the mother of three daughters and one son. Many that knew her called her 'Mom Stephens'. She was the grandmother of 17 and the great grandmother of 44 and Great-great Grandmother of 28 grandchildren. She had 3 sisters and 2 brothers all passed away before her.

Lorene was an active member of The Westside Freewill Baptist Church.

Lorene loved her church and attended services many times when she didn't feel well. Funeral services were held at Westside Freewill Baptist church.

Submitted by Janice Ruth Stephens Bunch.

Comment by Charles R. Gann, Lorene's nephew.

One of the best things I remember about Aunt Lorene and Uncle Pug. They lived in Tulsa a short distance from her sister, Lena, and Lena's family. Once a month, Bob Wills would play for a dance at Cain's Academy of Dancing. Don't laugh, that is what it is called. The home of Bob Wills. We lived in Coweta and it was an adventure traveling to Tulsa. Mom and Dad would load up us children for the trip to Tulsa. We would visit with our cousins and the adults went to the dance. In the summer, we slept in the yard. There wasn't any air conditioning. In the cooler time of the year, we slept on pallets throughout the house.

I never heard Aunt Lorene say anything bad about anyone. When I questioned her about my grandfather Gann, she would tell me he was a big man.

She loved her family and stayed in contact via the telephone the last few years.

A Note From Diane

Horace and I have been working on something new that might prove very interesting to some of you. I have, just in the last few months, obtained a computer program that enables me to save all newsletters to the Acrobat Adobe format, .pdf. In this format the newsletters can be sent to people via Internet, through their email. Also, Horace plans to place all the old newsletters, as well as future ones, on his website, where they can be obtained and downloaded for future reference.

The price of copying and printing the newsletters has been increasing with each issue. Our idea to try to help with this is to send some of the newsletters to those who have email, if they are interested, at no charge to them. Then, those who still want to receive them in regular mail, especially to those who don't have computers, they will receive the printed copy. We would cut down on the cost of printed copies this way.

We aren't sure how many would like to receive the newsletter thru email, where they would print it out themselves. If you think you would be interested, please send me an email and let me know. Maybe we will even find others who would want to receive the newsletter this way.

My email is walls2381@aikenelectric.net

Give us your input on this idea!

Diane

UPDATE:

We have had 3 or 4 send emails that they would like to receive the pdf format of the newsletter. If you would like to receive the newsletter in this format, just to see what it looks like, contact me; I'll send it to you. This is also a way to get old copies of the newsletter, (dating from 2000 to current) if you have lost yours or have just started receiving the newsletter and want to see some of the older copies.

I'm Going To Follow You

Walk a little plainer, Daddy,
Said a little boy so frail,
For I'm following in your footsteps,
And I don't want to fail.
Sometimes your steps are very plain,
Sometimes they're hard to see,
So walk a little plainer, Daddy,
For you are leading me.
I know that you once walked this way
Many, many years ago
And what you did along the way
I'd really like to know.
For sometimes when I'm tempted
I don't know what to do,
So walk a little plainer, Daddy;
You know I'm following you.
Some day when I'm grown up,
You are like I want to be.
Then I will have a little boy
Who'll want to follow me.
And I would want to lead him right
And help him to be true.
So walk a little plainer, Daddy,
I'm going to follow you.

Bed In Summer Poem

In winter I get up at night,
And dress by yellow candlelight.
In summer quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day,

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree,
Or hear the grown up people's feet
Still going past me in the street,

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

John Peele, Sr.

Taken from a tattered copy as it was written by his granddaughter, Louisa Peele Moon.

(Source: The Peele Family of Clinton County, published by Ruth Esther Hussey, Harriett P. Terrell, Lucile Hadley, and Susanne Kenney)

John Peele, son of Reuben and Rhoda Peele was born in Wayne County, North Carolina, 6th month, 2nd, 1781. He lived with his parents til his twenty-fourth year, engaged in the occupation of farming, common in that state, at that time. At that age he first began to master the English alphabet and finally acquired such an education as was of great benefit to him during his long life of usefulness in the church and community in which he lived.

About this time he went into Greyson County, VA and remained one year. He then undertook what was in those days thought to be a long and perilous journey to the far west through almost unbroken territory of Indiana as far as where the city of Richmond is now situated, then covered with dense forest and returned to North Carolina well pleased with his western trip. He was not satisfied to remain at home but a short time as the western country had a fascination for him. He soon bade adieu to parents and friends and set his face westward to find for himself a new home.

His first stopping place was in Belmont County, Ohio, where he met Lydia Bundy, and on 12th mo. 2nd, 1807, they were married according to the ceremony of the Society of Friends of which they were both members. Very soon after their marriage they moved to Fall Creek and settled near where the place where Bowersville stands. They remained here two years, then moved near the place where they built a new cabin and such other improvements as necessary as is now known as the Telfair land. This was the 3rd mo., 1st, 1813.

While living here they made on horseback a trip back to the old home in Belmont Co., taking with them a child one year old. Few women of the present time would be brave enough to undertake such a journey with so few of the comforts and necessaries of life by the way.

He was noted for industry and honesty, and we, his grandchildren, should walk with pride in his footsteps.

After their return home they bought 50 (?) acres of land, not intending to make this their home but buying it for the purpose of making maple sugar --?-- Buying more land joining his sugar orchard he concluded to make this their future home, which he did in 1820, building and moving into the hewed log house still standing on this farm. As a pioneer, all this farm was bought for $3.25 an acre from Nathan Linton, now owned by Mary Ellen Peele, widow of Mark Peele. This land was paid for just a few dollars at a time, as they made no mortgage or interest.

As a pleasure he often took his rifle and fishing rod and wended his way into the forest and along the creek – always bringing back a load of meat and fish.

The nearest Friends Meeting when he settled here was at Dover, seven miles distance, and he was often found among the worshipers there, going on foot, taking his rifle with him and hunting on the way. This love for hunting and fishing lasted him through life. As a business man he was successful, accumulating enough of this world's goods to make him comfortable in his old age, having plenty and to spare to any in need of help.

Seven children were born to them, three sons and four daughters: William, Reuben, Mary, Rhoda, Emma, Mark and Lydia. Rhoda Mills and Emma Bentley are still living and with us today, aged and feeble in body but well preserved in mind for persons of their age. Our hearts are made glad by their presence and may their lives be lengthened out to meet with us again in our annual reunion.

John Peele was a life member of the Society of Friends, always diligent in attendance, being made much use in the business transaction of the meetings and during the later part of his life he often gave words of counsel and advice in the meetings for worship.

After forty-nine years of married life he was called to give her up who had shared the toils and of pioneer life with him.

His youngest son, Mark, and wife, Mary Ellen Peelle, with kind hands and loving heart, made comfortable his declining years. Thirteen years after the death of his companion, he too, was called home on 12th mo. 1st, 1869, aged 88 years and 6 months.

(Buried in the Old Cemetery – Back of Aunt Mollie Jane Gallimore, Lee Gordon, etc. home.)

Buried there are John's father and mother:

1. Reuben and Rhoda Pearson Peelle
2. John and Lydia Bundy Peelle
3. Lydia Peelle Carter, daughter of John and Lydia Peelle, plus others.

The Peelle Reunion put up a double stone for Reuben and Rhoda. There is one for Lydia Peelle Carter

MARK PEELE

(Source: The Peelle Family of Clinton County, published by Ruth Esther Hussey, Harriett P. Terrell, Lucile Hadley, and Susanne Kenney)

Mark Peelle was born January 11, 1821, the first child of John and Lydia to be born at what was to become known as “the old home place.” On February 3, 1848 he married Mary Ellen Jessup, daughter of Emily Jessup Peelle (Mrs. Reuben). They built the large frame house near the log house of John and Lydia, and his parents lived with them the rest of their lives.

Mark was the businessman and was always posted on the affairs of the day. He bought and sold several farms besides those on which his children settled. He was often called upon to write wills and other legal documents. His wife, Mary Ellen, was always his loyal support in all his work. She was brpad (sic?) in her thought and interest and after her seventieth birthday visited both the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans and ten years later enjoyed the Yearly Meeting in Philadelphia.

Mark and Mary Ellen were the parents of five children. He died December 1, 1883 while Mary Ellen lived until November 17, 1920.
